

PECO has a series of "show you how" booklets in their line that we have discovered to be great little add-on sale items. The booklets are small, however, packed full of pertinent reference material...perfect for beginner to intermediate modelers. We will be bringing these items in to HHW for distribution and stocking them as regular line items. We particularly like the price points!!! Here is the list. If you would like to try any of these, let us know:
